MATCH REPORT

Cheshire II team recorded a fine win against talented Ulster I team at Chester on Saturday. They got off to a good start by coming out of the Singles 3-2 up, a rare luxury for Cheshire teams in recent times. This was due to a fine attacking performance by Barry Burns and to the determination shown by Andrew Howson and Jane Portch.

The main feature of the match was perhaps the strong aggressive play of the Cheshire ladies who won 5 out of their 6 events. The result of this exciting and evenly fought contest was in doubt right up to the end and eventually swung in the last two Mixed Doubles events. Cheshire managing to win both.
